Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response to any question in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission

The Jobs with Justice Education Fund was launched in 1987 as a national campaign for workers' rights. Our mission is to build a strong network of coalitions that bring together labor, community, faith, and student organizations and leaders to win workers' rights and connect to broader economic and social justice issues. We conduct outreach and educational programs about workers' rights, provide technical assistance and material development to local coalitions, and assist in developing and carrying out programs to advance workers' rights through our core issues: economic recovery, health care, immigrants' rights, and global justice.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code) (Expenses $ 564,000 including grants of $ 60,200) (Revenue $)

Winning Campaigns that Build Power for Working People in a Variety of Sectors. We are dedicated to addressing critical workers' rights and economic justice issues facing workers and working families across the country. We provide financial and technical resources and educational materials to local chapters to conduct outreach and education on workers' rights issues and to engage in workplace justice and community campaigns focused on expanding access to health care coverage, protecting our public safety net programs improving public education statewide, advocating for increased access to childcare services for low-wage families, and many more.

4b (Code) (Expenses $ 669,758 including grants of $ 75,250) (Revenue $ 209,556)

Building and Supporting a Network of Sustainable, Strategic, and Powerful Coalitions. We provide financial, technical resources and educational materials, including financial management and staff support, to more than 45 local Jobs with Justice chapters. We engage our network in strategic efforts to help build and strengthen their capacities to not only engage but also lead effective state and local campaigns in support of ongoing national efforts around an array of workers' rights issues. In addition to offering financial and technical support to our network of coalitions, we also provide leadership development and training opportunities for staff and leaders of our network and facilitate cross-train opportunities across the network. Developing Leaders and Activists to guide our Struggles. We provide leadership development and training opportunities for staff and leaders of our network and facilitate cross-train opportunities. Through our National Training and Leadership Development program we involve our network in new forms of thinking to support and strengthen their work as well as developing credible workers' rights spokespersons. We have over 100 leaders, organizers, and activists participate annually. We also use our national projects as ways to develop leaders: (1) the Student Labor Action Project develops student leaders and engages them in workers' rights and community campaigns, (2) the Workers' Rights Board Project provides education on our core issues to prominent community and religious leaders through public hearings at the national and local levels.

4c (Code) (Expenses $ 186,759 including grants of $ 15,050) (Revenue $)

Cultivating New Strategic Alliances and Strengthening Existing Ones. We build relationships and collaborate with other organizations and networks to build a grassroots movement of individuals committed to winning social and economic justice. Through our relationship building activities, we aim to develop strategic alliances that help us to reach the scale that is necessary to win real changes. Today our growing universe of partners and allies include labor groups, social and economic justice nonprofits, academics/researchers, civil rights leaders, and policy advocates.

4d Other program services (Describe in Schedule O)
